History of Griffith College

Founded in 1974, Griffith College is Ireland's leading independent third-level institution, with campuses in Dublin, Cork and Limerick. Since its establishment, Griffith College has gained a national and international reputation for academic excellence and student success. Our graduates have gone on to successful careers in a wide variety of sectors, from accountancy, business and computing to music, fashion, design and law. Each of our four campuses has a unique history and atmosphere providing a welcoming, rounded and engaging educational experience.

The original South Circular Road Dublin campus buildings date back over 200 years to their construction in 1813. During the past two centuries they have regularly played a part in both local and national political events. Since their purchase by Griffith College in 1991, we have sought to combine the rich history of the buildings that surround us with the academic objectives of the College. The campus has seen significant investment with the development of student accommodation and a conference centre complementing the original buildings.

On June 1st 2005, Skerry's Cork Business School merged with Griffith College. Skerry's had been at the forefront of education in Cork since 1884, and has a long history of providing quality education in the city. Griffith College Cork's five-acre campus is located in the city's north side, a short walk from the main train station and shopping thoroughfares.

Griffith College Limerick is located on O'Connell Avenue in the heart of Limerick City. Originally established as the Mid West Business Institute in 1988 to deliver accountancy programmes, it quickly grew to include a wide range of disciplines and remains the only independent third-level college to provide engineering courses.

Our newest campus, located in Dublin City Centre, marks a new expansion of Griffith College's footprint and our mission, with new course offerings bringing lifelong education to new audiences.
The main campus is situated on seven acres within a mile of St. Stephen’s Green on Dublin’s South Circular Road. Over the years Griffith College has earned itself both a national and international reputation for student success.

The College has gained an enviable, award-winning reputation for providing students with first-class lectures and excellent study material. Griffith College offers internationally recognised undergraduate and postgraduate degree programmes, complemented by a wide range of professional, short term and corporate training programmes.
City Centre Campus — Wolfe Tone Street

In 2018, Griffith College opened an ultra-modern teaching facility at 25 Wolfe Tone Street, Dublin 1, to complement its main campus on Dublin’s South Circular Road.

The City Centre campus is located beside the busiest shopping area of Dublin, Henry Street, with Arnotts and Jervis Street Shopping Centre nearby. The campus is easily accessible by public transport with the Red and Green Luas lines just minutes away, and it is well-served by the buses that stop on O’Connell Street and the quays along the River Liffey. For those driving there are reduced rate car parking facilities nearby.

DublinBikes, which is a public bicycle rental scheme, is also located nearby.

Griffith College City Centre offers students:

- The security of signing up to a well-established, reputable college
- The support and knowledge of the highly skilled and experienced Griffith College team
- All modern, state-of-the-art teaching facilities
- A fresh, dynamic centre which is totally focused on meeting the needs of the student.
Cork Campus

Griffith College was first established in Cork in 1998 with the School of Professional Accountancy. In June 2005, Griffith College Cork merged with Skerry's College. Skerry's College had been at the forefront of education in Cork since 1884.

Griffith College Cork runs a variety of both full-time and part-time, undergraduate, postgraduate and masters programmes in Law, Business, Journalism, Computing Science and Pharmaceutical Business Management as well as professional programmes in Law and Accountancy.

Griffith College Cork is strongly committed to the creation of a positive learning environment. This relaxed and productive atmosphere is achieved by developing a strong pastoral care ethos, evidenced by the open-door policy of lecturers, the operation of all lectures on a first-name basis, the provision of both written and oral feedback on formal and informal assignments, and the close, friendly working relationship between students and staff, all of which are based on a spirit of trust and collaboration.

Limerick Campus

In September 2006, Griffith College acquired the Mid West Business Institute (MWBI) and became Griffith College Limerick. The new entity carried forward the proud traditions and reputations of both institutions, which were founded in 1974 and 1988 respectively.

The principles that exemplified the respective institutions that occupied the building – providing high-quality, relevant qualifications to the people of the Mid West region and beyond – survive today under the auspices of Griffith College.

The Limerick campus provides a wide range of full-time, part-time and blended learning programmes from its state-of-the-art facility. Internationally recognised qualifications ranging from Level 6 to Level 9 on the Irish Framework of Qualifications (NFQ) are available in Accountancy, Business, Computing, Engineering and Hospitality, through its validating partners; QQI, ACCA, Heriot-Watt University, BTEC, and ICM.

At the Limerick campus, students can expect smaller class sizes and individual attention from both lecturers and staff, in a student-focused, reassuring learning environment. Students receive support and encouragement in their academic studies, pastoral care and work preparation. The over-arching goal is that all students reach their full potential and be ready to take up employment in their chosen field.

Looking for accommodation for the first time when going to college can be extremely daunting. Try to look at it as a new experience and part of your College journey. There are a few things to bear in mind when looking for accommodation.

Accommodation Options

Your life on campus should be much more than the classroom experience. There are clubs, societies and lots of events in your local area. People you meet while in College often become friends for life.

Enjoy every minute of your time on campus and make the most of it! Ask questions, go on a social night out, use resources and ensure you get the best from your time in college.

Below are some useful contacts that you may need while at Griffith College.

Accommodation

Looking for accommodation for the first time when going to college can be extremely daunting.

Try to look at it as a new experience and part of your College journey. There are a few things to bear in mind when looking for accommodation.

What kind of accommodation are you looking for?

Halls of Residence / Purpose Built Student Accommodation (PBSA)

Halls of Residence or Purpose Built Student Accommodation is ideal if you want to be in close proximity to campus, live with fellow students and really immerse yourself in College life. These would usually have a lease period of 9 months or over two semesters.

Digs/lodgings

Digs or lodgings is where you live with the landlord or a host family. These can be from Monday - Friday or full-time. Breakfast and/or dinner maybe included depending on the agreement, but generally you are only renting a room in the home.

Private rented accommodation

This is a letting by a landlord or through a letting agency. This can be for a house, apartment, shared accommodation or single occupancy. Leases are usually for six or 12 months periods so ensure you check before agreeing or signing that the lease period suits your needs.
Tips for Accommodation

Tips to get you started
When looking for accommodation bear the following in mind.

Look early
If you start looking for accommodation early, it is more likely you will find more options suited to you. Also you may find accommodation at a better rate, if you decide to look early.

Know where you want to be
It may sound simple, but looking at where you want to live is important. Know where your campus is and the best ways to get there. This should make it easier to narrow down a location that suits you best.

When choosing a place
Before paying a deposit, always view it first, and ensure you meet the landlord or letting agency. The landlord must be registered with the Residential Tenancies Board (RTB) and you are legally entitled to a rent book, which you can pick up in most post offices or stationery shops. Ensure you get a written agreement of a lease and read it carefully, and never hand over cash, if possible. Keep receipts for everything and always get a signature from your landlord in your rent book upon rent payments and for the deposit.

Read the contract
Ensure you read your lease before signing it. You are liable for rental payments for the duration of your lease, including time away for holidays. If you decide to leave earlier you may be liable to pay for the rent due until the end of your lease. So if you signed a lease for 12 months but only plan on staying for nine, you are required to pay for the full 12 months unless otherwise agreed with your landlord.

Make a list
When moving in, make sure to fill out an inventory of items contained in the property. Take photos of each room and in particular any damages so that you can be sure that any damages not caused by you cannot be docked out of your deposit. Also if something is broken, ask for it to be fixed or replaced prior to moving in.

For more information on tenant rights and responsibilities, visit rtb.ie or threshold.ie

Student Etiquette

Attendance
Your success on your chosen Griffith College programme is enhanced by a variety of learning supports both in-class and through online resources. Your participation and attendance at lectures is critical to ensure you are benefiting from these supports throughout the duration of your studies.

Activities including in-class discussions, simulation exercises and workshops depend on class attendance. So, while each learner has a responsibility for organising and managing aspects of their own learning, enrolment on a programme also entails commitment to participation. The nature of participation whether it is face to face, via the internet and its scale, will differ between programmes.

Full information about the time and location of teaching and assessment arrangements as well as information about your programme’s attendance requirements will be provided by your faculty.

We ask that you:
- take the time to understand your programme’s attendance requirements
- let your faculty know of any attendance difficulties
- are aware that low attendance and lack of participation can result in you being withdrawn from your programme.

Netiquette
All emails between learners and academic/administrative staff of the College should be professional, courteous, respectful and polite. There should be an appropriate salutation (e.g. Dear Mary / Hi Dr Murphy) and care should be taken with grammar, spelling etc. All members of staff have specific working hours so please do not expect a response outside of these hours.
Dos and Don'ts for student etiquette

Do:
- be courteous to fellow classmates and staff at all times;
- understand and respect cultural differences between yourself and your classmates;
- be open-minded to other people’s opinions during group work, and respect that it is a team effort;
- exercise boundaries between you, classmates and staff. Contact should only ever relate to material around your module or programme with staff.

Don’t:
- use your mobile phone in class without expressed permission from your lecturer;
- record any lectures without seeking consent beforehand;
- arrive late - you will disturb the class and may not be permitted entry;
- leave lectures early unless you have sought permission before the beginning of class;
- attend class under the influence of alcohol/drugs;
- contact lecturers outside of business hours or during unsociable hours, especially if a lecturer has entrusted you with their contact details.
Health and Safety

Your health and safety is a top priority while at Griffith College. If you feel unsafe or see anyone in danger at any time, report it to a member of security immediately.

Accidents and emergencies
It is extremely important that any accident or injury is immediately reported to a member of staff in order to alert first responders. In the absence of a member of staff near the incident, reception should be notified.

Evacuation and fire alarm response
All College buildings are equipped with fire alarm systems and fire extinguishers. If a fire or other incident occurs, the fire alarms will be activated and the buildings evacuated. Whenever a fire alarm is activated you are required to evacuate the building, through the nearest fire exit, and go to your nearest assembly point. Do not return to the building under any circumstances until the all clear is given by a Fire Marshall or designated member of staff.

If you discover a fire or other incident, raise the alarm by breaking the nearest available fire alarm break glass point and then follow the evacuation procedures. Do not attempt to tackle a fire. Please cooperate with all instructions from a Fire Marshall or designated member of staff.

Please note: Fire drills are conducted from time to time. As with actual fire alarms, fire drills require immediate evacuation of the building and outdoor assembly. Please make yourself aware of your nearest means of escape.

Property and equipment
Do not intentionally or recklessly interfere with or misuse any equipment etc. provided for the safety, health or welfare of students and staff.

Should you become aware of any defect in equipment or property that might endanger safety, health or welfare you are requested to report this to a member of staff.

For assistance, contact security on the South Circular Road Campus on 01 - 4150495, or 087 - 2711948 / 086 - 8182370. For all other campuses, contact reception. Contact details can be found on page 11. The Cork campus has an evening reception number which is contactable through 087 - 7010800.
While at Griffith, there are key people who will be able to assist you within your faculty.

The international office is located in the Dublin South Circular Road campus on the ground floor of the Academic Facilities Building (AF105). The office acts as a resource for international students in the College. You can email the international office at international@griffith.ie or visit the office during their contact hours (9.30-17.30, Monday-Friday). The international office will assist you in applying for a PPS number, opening a bank account and renewing visas.

If the international office listed above is not on your campus then you can phone, email or call to your faculty office for assistance.

Special note on attendance for international students

In addition to College regulations on attendance, the Irish Department of Justice guidelines outline that international students must maintain an attendance level of 80% or more for the duration of their programme. Any attendance level lower than 80% is not acceptable. The international office also monitors attendance on a regular basis to ensure that all International students adhere to this regulation. If there is a valid reason for non-attendance, you are required to provide an explanation along with any relevant documentation to your faculty administrator and also send a copy of this documentation to the international office. In this case, certified or documented absences will not affect your attendance record.

Visa extension letter requests

This service is only provided by the international office. Students must apply for a visa extension letter using the online letter ordering system – www.gcdinternationaloffice.ie. Having completed the letter ordering process, you will automatically receive an email giving the date you must call to the international office to sign off on your request. When doing so, you will be given your attendance rate and the date after which you may go to the Garda National Immigration Bureau to renew your visa. It is imperative that you have a valid email address when using the online letter ordering system. You should apply for a visa extension letter a minimum of 21 days prior to your visa expiring.
MyGriffith

MyGriffith will be your central resource for all your online College information. Through this site you will be able to access all your Griffith online services including Moodle, your Griffith Student Email (which is automatically created at completion of Online Registration), Online payments, current and past exam results, and updating your personal information (change of address or phone number), etc. To access MyGriffith, please access: my.griffith.ie

Student email

All students are assigned a College email account. This account is not only for the duration of your time at College, but also beyond when you become a Griffith Alumni member. Your student email also gives you access to online storage (OneDrive) and the ability to use Microsoft Office. If you would like all communications from the college to come to this account, please contact your faculty to give the email address you wish to use.

Your Griffith username and password

Once you are fully registered you should be able to log on to all of the Griffith College systems. Your username is your student number and your password is your date of birth e.g. 31/12/2001. Note that if you change your password on one system this will not be reflected in the others.

Moodle

Moodle is Griffith College’s Student Virtual Learning Management System. It is the main resource for your programme information. Here, you will find all the information on your programme and modules including past exam papers, class notes and exam timetables, assignments, access to information databases and College regulations. You will also find procedures and academic forms on your MyGriffith account.
Library staff look forward to supporting you in your learning at every stage of your studies. The Library collection includes books, ebooks, journals, music manuscripts and DVDs, as well as online journals, electronic dissertations and academic databases for all faculties.

Understanding how to find and communicate academic materials is an important skill to develop, and the Library provides a range of resources to help you. We provide guidance in how to navigate our materials and can assist you with sourcing relevant information for your assignments and dissertations. We can help you to develop an understanding of academic integrity and how it applies to your coursework. As well as face-to-face individual support, we offer in-class workshops, tailored group labs and general library orientations. To facilitate equal support to all learners, we offer remote support and will arrange Zoom meetings on request.

Library Online
Browse our holdings on the library catalogue. This includes access to eBooks, to view these you will need to enter your Moodle username and password.

All other library services and information can be accessed through the main Library website. This includes access to online resources such as academic databases, our range of learner support materials on topics such as academic writing, referencing and literature reviews. We regularly add to our video guides on our Library YouTube channel and we provide links to interactive tutorials on our Library information page on Moodle.

Deferrals & Assessments

Deferrals are only granted for reasons such as bereavement, illness or extenuating circumstances such as caring for others or jury duty (this would require supporting documentation). If the programme director/lead sanctions a deferral, a form can be completed and sent to registration for processing. If a component deferral is given, the student will be expected to take the assessment of that module at the next available sitting.

If you wish to apply for a deferral you must submit a Learner Record Amendment Form (LRAF), which is available to download from Moodle. You should submit your completed form to your faculty to be approved by your Programme Director. If your application for deferral is approved, your Programme Director will outline the conditions of the deferral. In the event that your deferral request is unsuccessful you will have the right to appeal the decision.

There are a few different types of deferral:

1. Programme Deferral: if you wish to defer your full programme of study until the next academic year (must be requested within 4 weeks of registering)
2. Module Deferral: if you wish to defer module(s) until the next academic year (must be requested within 4 weeks of registering)
3. Assessed Work Deferral (Assignment, Exam, Project, etc): In the event that you need to defer your assessment to the next exam sitting due to illness or extenuating circumstances.

Please note Programme and Module deferrals are granted for one year only.
Assessment deferrals are granted for one semester only.

For further information, please refer to QAE C4.

Assignments and projects

- All work must be submitted by the appointed deadline. It is college policy not to grant extensions other than in exceptional circumstances.
- It is important to make and keep a copy of every assignment/project/dissertation you submit to the college.
- Assignments will not be accepted without a signed Assignment Cover Sheet. This coversheet is available on Moodle and should be attached to both hard copy assignments and soft copies submitted through ‘Turnitin’ (a software resource used to evaluate academic integrity)

Assessments

Your academic progress at Griffith College is normally assessed through a variety of forms including written, practical, projects etc. It is the responsibility of every learner to familiarise themselves with the College’s rules and regulations for assessments and examinations. All forms and policies referred to in this section are available to download from Moodle. If you have any further questions please contact academic learner services at examinations@griffith.ie or phone (01) 4150 485.
Examinations

For programmes that are divided into semesters, examinations typically take place at the end of each semester.

Where modules extend across two semesters, the examinations are typically held at the end of the second semester. A supplemental examination sitting normally takes place at the end of the academic year and before the next academic year starts – typically August.

Please refer to Moodle for a full listing of all college regulations regarding examinations including guidelines on procedures before, after and during examinations.

Prohibited materials
You are not permitted to take any material into the exam venue that might give you an unfair advantage over other students. You also may not have written notes of any kind on your person. You should not bring items of value or importance to exams or leave them outside in bags or coats. Items that you may not take into an exam include:

- mobile phones
- computer hardware/software
- pencil cases
- smart devices
- notes of any kind
- programmable calculators
- textbooks

Any unauthorised material found in your possession will be confiscated immediately and your actions may be construed as an attempt at cheating. A full investigation will take place, which may result in disciplinary action.
How the grading system works
Most programmes within the College are assessed on the Percentage Grading Scheme (%).

Normally, the pass mark is 40%. However, for some programmes, the pass mark is 50%. To find out the pass mark pertaining to your programme, please refer to your Programme Handbook or contact your Faculty Administrator.

You must achieve the minimum pass mark in each module. Where modules are assessed by more than one component (assignment, project, examination, etc) you normally must pass each component. To find out the breakdown of assessment in each module, please refer to the approved programme schedule in your programme handbook.

Pass by compensation
Each assessment component completed is marked out of 100%, with the minimum pass mark normally set at 40 or 50%.

The rules for compensation are as follows:

- You are registered for the module as a 1st attempt
- You have not failed (currently or previously) any module within the stage
- You have achieved the deficit marks required in another module within the stage

Assessment results
Please refer to your academic calendar included in this booklet. To access your results, please log into my.griffith.ie using your student number and password and click "Exam Results".

Please note that results remain provisional until they have been approved at the relevant examinations board. Transcripts of results are issued by your Faculty Administrator, in hard copy, on completion of your programme. Please ensure that the College has your correct contact details for all correspondence. To check and update your Contact Details, please log in to my.griffith.ie.
Passing a component (exam, assignment) by compensation

You can pass a component by compensation, providing:

- You are passing all components within the module
- You have achieved sufficient additional marks in the other components to compensate for the deficit

Example of compensatory component results

Assuming pass mark is 40% and both components have equal weighting of 50%

Scenario 1
Exam Result achieved – 36%
Assignment Result achieved – 44%
Overall Module Result achieved – 40%
Overall Module Grade achieved - P
Student can pass exam by compensation and does not have to retake the exam

Scenario 2
Exam Result achieved – 36%
Assignment Result achieved – 32%
Overall Module Result achieved – 34%
Overall Module Grade achieved - F
Assignment mark is a fail mark, assignment must be repeated. Exam Mark is a fail mark and cannot be passed by compensation due to the failing of the assignment. In this scenario, both components must be repeated at next available sitting.

The overall result for each module is calculated by multiplying the result achieved in each component by the associated weighting and then adding the results together.

How an overall stage or award result is calculated

The overall result for each year/stage of your programme is represented by the Percentage Point Average (PPA) achieved within the year/stage.

To calculate the PPA, the percentage achieved in each module is multiplied by the credits allocated to the module to determine the Percentage Credit Score.
The Percentage Credit Scores for each module are added together and divided by the total credits for the year/stage to arrive at the PPA as indicated below:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Module</th>
<th>% Achieved</th>
<th>Credits</th>
<th>% Credit Score</th>

<td>50</td>
<td>10</td>
<td>500</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total Credit Score</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>3530</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The Percentage Credit Scores for each module are added together and divided by the total credits for the year/stage to arrive at the PPA as indicated below:

\text{Total Percentage Credit Score} = \frac{3530}{60} = 58.9

To find out the credits allocated to each module associated with your programme, please refer to the approved programme schedule in your programme handbook.
How to calculate an award classification
The classification awarded is normally based on the PPA achieved in the final stage of the programme.

The award classification correlates to the PPA achieved and the Award Classification Bands relevant to the programme of study.

* In the cases where the module pass mark is 50%, the band for PASS is then 50-59
Award Classifications

A ‘Pass’ classification of an award is a positive statement of achievement.

* In the cases where the module pass mark is 50%, the band for PASS is then 50-59

All awards — other than minor awards and supplemental awards — shall be classified. Minor awards and special purpose awards are normally unclassified.

Special purpose awards which have a volume of at least 60 credits and are comparable to a major award (at the same NFQ level) may have the same classification as the major award.
Review /Re-check

Review of Results
Students are afforded the opportunity of discussing their assessment results with their lecturer(s). Such consultations or review feedback meetings are aimed at giving guidance to improvements to future performance, and can be very beneficial for revision and repeat preparation.

Such requests must be made directly to the Faculty Office within 10 days of the release of the results. For more details, please consult your Faculty Guidelines.

Administrative re-check of assessment results
A re-check refers to the process of checking the administrative recording and addition of marks, and that all attempted parts of the question were marked, and that no computational error occurred during the marking process or in the transfer of marks to the results sheet or database. It does not involve any review of the assessment performance or the merit of the mark awarded.

Requests for re-checks must be lodged within 5 days of the official release of the results on my.griffith.ie. The request must be submitted on the appropriate form to the Faculty Administration Office, along with the set fee of €100. In the event of an error being found, which results in a change to the mark awarded, the fee will be refunded.

Appeals
If you wish to appeal the decision of an examinations board you may do so in accordance with the following conditions:

- You believe that there was a non-academic irregularity in the manner in which their assessments were conducted
- You wish to present information of mitigating circumstances which were not known to the examinations board. In this case, the learner must also show good reason why such circumstances could not have been made known prior to or at the examinations board meeting
- There is a breach of natural justice. (A breach of natural justice occurs when your right to a fair appeal is not upheld by the college).

For more details and access to the appeals form referred to in the appeals section, please refer to section QAE 15 of the Griffith College Quality Assurance and Enhancement Manual.
Learning support for learners with disabilities

Here at Griffith College, we are committed to maintaining a supportive, inclusive environment within which students can reach their educational potential.

The Learning Support office works with students and staff to promote a positive and successful learning experience for learners with disabilities and specific learning difficulties.

A range of supports are available including:

- needs assessment – a confidential meeting to assess learning needs and the student’s accompanying documentation in order to agree the appropriate supports that may be required
- reasonable accommodations – this aims to remove the impact of a disability within the learning environment, so that students can demonstrate their full level of academic potential. Examples include: spelling and grammar waiver, additional time, scribe and reader support and low distraction venues during examinations
- invitations to key skills workshops – topics include time management, planning for success in assessments and exam revision techniques
- one to one support meetings.

Please note: early disclosure of disabilities (ideally at admission stage) is vital to allow for the necessary supports to be agreed and put in place from the beginning of the learning journey.

Email: learningsupport@griffith.ie   Phone: + 353 1 416 3376   Office location: E002, Dublin campus.

"Mental health is defined as a state of wellbeing in which every individual realises his or her own potential, can cope with the normal stresses of life, can work productively and fruitfully, and is able to make a contribution to her or his community." - World Health Organisation

The state of your mental health can fluctuate from month to month, day to day or even hour to hour. Transitioning into College life can be a huge upheaval bringing both exciting and stressful times.

There are so many factors that can affect the state of our mental health. If at any point you feel that your mental health is suffering, talking to someone and trying to identify what (if anything) is causing it can be hugely beneficial.

Looking after your mental health is as important as looking after your physical health. It's OK to not feel OK and it's more than OK to ask for help.

You can avail of the following services on or nearby your campus:

- learner supports
- counselling
- GP
- students' union.

All lecturers and staff want to ensure you are happy and healthy during your time here at Griffith College and beyond.

Off-campus supports
There are many local and national support services that can provide care during both difficult times and in times of crisis.

“Stress is a feeling that’s created when you react to certain events. It’s the body’s way of preparing to meet a situation with focus and heightened alertness. Stress can become a problem when it starts to affect how you cope with day-to-day stuff.” - Health Service Executive

Moving into a new place, exams, relationships, jobs and other pressures can all cause you to suffer from stress. It is perfectly natural to get stressed from time to time, but it’s how much it can affect you that matters. It's important to try and identify when you are stressed and take some steps to try and alleviate it.

Some helpful tips that can help to reduce stress

Hang out with people who make you feel good: socialising with friends, taking part in a club/society can be a great stress buster. Talking with friends or doing an activity can really lift your mood.

Get some exercise: playing sports or even just getting out for a walk (with or without the dog!) can really help clear your mind.

Concentrate on your breathing: if you are feeling particularly overwhelmed at a certain time, try and concentrate on breathing deeply. This can help ground you and focus on your next task.

Make a list: set out clear and realistic goals to stay on track. If you find yourself going astray don’t be afraid to ask for help.

Minimise drugs, alcohol and caffeine: in the long term consuming such substances can make you feel more depressed, cause higher blood pressure and mood swings. It's important to watch out for triggers that may cause symptoms to worsen.

Eat as well as possible: when feeling stressed, it's easy to turn to junk food that you think makes you feel good. Instead, try to follow a balanced diet and avoid the usual of pitfalls of exhaustion and loss of focus.

Talk to someone: if you feel like you are not coping, there are plenty of people who are happy to listen. This can be a huge factor in helping you to cope. It is never too much trouble to admit that you are having a difficult time.

Talking to a friend, family member, your students' union, programme director, GP or counsellor really makes a difference.
Griffith College Students’ Union is the representative body for all Griffith College students and is based on the South Circular Road (SCR) campus.

The purpose of your students’ union is to represent students both within the institution and externally, including on local and national issues. Your students’ union is also responsible for providing a variety of services to students.

You are actively encouraged to become involved so that they can directly influence and organise activities and events. The SU officers hold full-time sabbatical appointments for a period of one academic year and they are elected by their fellow students every year.

The students’ union can be contacted by emailing su.president@griffith.ie or alternatively you can drop into the SU office, which is open daily. Please note opening times can be altered by SU events and trips at certain times.

The Griffith Activities Team focuses on all aspects of the college experience and life outside the classroom. The main areas we look after are sports, adventure and wellness.

Sport

A wide range of sports are on offer to get involved in, some of the sports include; Basketball, Cricket, Football, Volleyball, Badminton and much more. During the year, there will be training and competitions against other third level institutions. As well as competing, there is also a huge social aspect to the sports teams, which can really enhance your time here in Griffith College.

Adventure

For the adventure element, they arrange trips, some involve getting active and others are focused on experiencing and seeing Ireland. There are a selection of day and weekend trips, as well as smaller day and weekend activities to ensure there is always something to get involved in. All of their activities will be shown on your Activities Calendar in your induction goodie bag.

Wellness

Then there is the wellness section of student activities. For this, there are a range of contacts available for you; whether that be a GP, Dentist, Well-women clinic and so on.

There is a free counselling service here that is available to all Griffith College Students, the service is completely confidential and based off campus, you can contact them on; counselling@griffith.ie or 0874360032. Another aspect of wellness is the ‘Wellness Series’ this is a monthly event organised to focus on different areas of sexual, physical and mental health.

All of the details can be found on your Activities Calendar, or you can call in to our office, which is located in room D014 on the South Circular Road Campus or send an e-mail to activities@griffith.ie.
