

Department: Professional Accounting, Griffith College Cork

Position: Lecturers in Auditing and Taxation (Part-time)

Reporting to: Deputy Head, Griffith College Cork

Background

Griffith College, Ireland's premier independent third level institute is looking to recruit part-time Lecturers in Auditing and Taxation in its Professional Accountancy department, Griffith College Cork.

Description:

Griffith College Cork are looking for part time lecturers in the school of Professional Accountancy. We have positions available for people specialising in Auditing and Taxation at all levels. The successful candidates must hold a recognised Accounting or Taxation qualification and be available to lecture during the evenings and/or weekends.

The central role is that of delivering excellent education and training to the College's learners. Candidates are required to have direct experience of delivering modules on higher education programmes, with a proven ability to communicate concepts clearly and effectively to others. The lecturing role involves the setting and evaluation of assessments in accordance with national and international awards standards.

All lectures will be carried out at our campus on Wellington road.

The Ideal candidate will:

- Be highly organised
- Be proficient in Microsoft Office
- Be a self-starter who can work independently
- Have a can-do attitude
- Have a proven ability to meet tight deadlines
- Hold a professional qualification/degree/post graduate qualification in Business, Accounting or similar area.

Notes:

Hours of Work: evenings and/or weekends, additional hours may be required from time to time including evening and weekend work.

Salary will be commensurate with experience

All applicants must have submitted CV's by close of business on Friday the 6th January