

Established in 1974, Griffith College is Ireland's largest independent third level institution with locations in Dublin, Cork and Limerick. Griffith College enjoys national and a growing international reputation for student success. The College has gained an enviable, award winning reputation for providing students with first class lectures and excellent study material. Griffith College offers internationally recognised postgraduate and undergraduate degree programmes, complemented by a wide range of professional, short term and corporate training educational solutions - in Griffith College, there is something for everyone.

Today there are over 7,000 students studying in the College, which is a designated educational institute of the Higher Education and Training Awards Council (HETAC).

Griffith College seeks to recruit lecturers at our Limerick City campus in the following areas:

- IT Infrastructure and Ethical hacking
- Legal Aspects of IT Security and Ethical Hacking
- Network Security Technology

The primary focus of this post will be to play an active role in the academic direction of courses including teaching, assessment and administration.

MAIN DUTIES

Deliver computing science modules.

Work proactively in improving existing courses and programmes.

Contribute to the design and development of new courses and programmes.

Engage with Year Heads and Programme Leaders on a regular basis and address any concerns that may arise in a timely manner.

Carry out assessment, monitoring and evaluation of examinations and coursework, and providing an academic guidance and consultative support to students.

Provide assistance to students as required in a timely manner

Participate in internal departmental and multi-disciplinary committees and external meetings as required.

This job description is not to be regarded as exclusive or exhaustive. It is intended as an outline of proposed areas of activity and will be amended in the light of the changing environment within the Faculty and the College.

Person Specification

Overall the successful candidates will be expected to make significant contribution to the teaching profile of the College and :

Possess a Level 9 postgraduate qualification (or equivalent professional qualification) in Computing Science

Be highly organised with meticulous attention to detail

Have excellent interpersonal, written and verbal communication skills

Be committed to educational quality and customer service

Willing to work effectively as part of an integrated team in the Computing Faculty

Hold a Teaching and Learning qualification, if not, the applicant will be required to undertake the Colleges Level 9 Training & Education programme on appointment

Please forward applications to anthony.brosnan@griffith.ie with cover letter and CV before Friday 20th January.