

Creative Department

Job Title	Design Intern
Reports to	Ronan Doyle
Date	September – December 2019

At Connelly Partners Dublin we are looking for driven, independent thinkers to work with us and build our agency. Our ethos is to be Defiantly Human: that means we want to represent the power of human emotion and the illogic in all of us. We embrace empathy over just entertainment, trust our instincts over algorithms, and value relevance over disruption for the sake of it. To be part of our team is to value independence in thought, structure, and action. If that sounds like you, we'd love to say hello.

ESSENTIAL JOB DUTIES

- Support the needs of the Creative Team:
 - Image sourcing
 - Taking existing concepts and designs and resizing them or translating them to different mediums
 - Assisting in the creation of digital components such as web pages (including responsive media pages), banners, social posts, and email campaigns
 - Assisting in video creation
 - Researching resources such as fonts, illustrations, photographers, etc.
 - Assisting with printed materials including press ads, OOH, and point of purchase

QUALIFICATIONS

- Education: At least 2 years into degree in a relevant discipline with some experience in video production and Adobe CC: Photoshop, Illustrator, and InDesign
- We are looking for someone who is passionate and curious about marketing and about connecting with today's consumer
