

Dublin Gazette Newspaper Internship

- Possibly only 3 days per week
- Some journalists or editor might want some research done, helping with other gen duties in office
- Answering phones
- Helping sales people with follow up on artwork etc
- Then maybe some other options down the road of small articles or local news items. But effectively learning each day how a local paper is produced but has to be willing to carry out basic tasks not least answering the phone here.

Covid safe office as well with less than normal staffing here now. Max is 6 people and some days only 3 people.
