

Liffey Champion is seeking an experienced Journalist – to join our news team in Mill Lane, Leixlip

JOURNALIST

Liffey Champion is the leading and best selling local newspaper in north Kildare and as a result we are expanding our newsroom to meet demand. We are seeking a journalist, with passion in their belly who works off their own initiative.

At its core Journalism requires the age old skills of hard work, dedication, quality writing and research, and a solid appreciation on deadlines.

As a news reporter for Liffey Champion you will be required to cover local news stories, attend and report on council meetings and court hearings, accept invitations to various functions for news purposes and carry out thoroughly, all the necessary research in relation to the work at hand.

Candidates must have a disciplined and unbiased approach to their work, have a good command of English, both written and spoken, as well as sound typing skills and personal drive. A willingness to work flexible hours is essential.

Experience in local newspaper journalism, and sound regional knowledge are important. Advantages are good handwriting and shorthand, a full driving licence and own transport.

If you are interested in joining this leading newspaper in north Kildare please apply in writing or email, with CV to:
