

Quintas are currently recruiting for our 2022 Graduate Program.

About Quintas

Quintas is one of Ireland's leading medium sized firms providing a full range of audit, accountancy, tax and advisory services. We invest in our people, and our broad client base offers you the opportunity to develop your career in a range of sectors, supported by highly experienced professionals.

Our graduate program will provide you with a broad base of training from our highly skilled and dedicated team of professionals and mentors. We do not silo you and feel this is incredibly important from a training perspective.

We currently have trainees studying for CPA, ACA and ACCA professional examinations.

Who You Are

A business minded, ambitious self-starter, that is excited to learn and looking to progress in their career. Initiative is crucial to excel in this role. We provide guidance and support throughout your career, but we need individuals that are willing to engage in research and take the time to understand both the problem and the solution.

We are looking for trainees that are driven to get results for themselves and the wider team. Strong verbal and written communication skills are a must, as is the ability to work collaboratively with your team.

What You'll Need

- 2.1 honours degree (or equivalent) in a business-related subject
- Intent to pursue a career in accounting
- Ability to think independently and bring forward solutions
- Attention to detail and the ability to prioritise
- Great attitude and excellent teamwork skills

The Quintas Advantage

In addition to a competitive remuneration package you will receive the following benefits:-

- Financial support for the attainment of your professional qualification
- Paid time off to study/undertake exams
- A structured training programme which includes on the job training, client relationship management and exposure to the wide range of services that we offer to our clients
- Regular In-House technical training and updates
- Internal training and exam coaching provided by senior staff
- Free parking facilities
- Summertime hours

Our hands-on approach means that each trainee is given significant responsibility from day one and is fully supported through direct on the job experience with the Managers and Partners.
