Role Summary

At TAP, our environment design team spans interior, industrial and spatial design. Working on projects that involve a high level of detail and understanding of product design to designing spaces that reflect the full expression of a brand - are experience and people centred and that align to the ambition of a client's business.

We are looking for a Designer who has a natural flair for interior spaces and who is adept at working with 3D objects. You will have experience in and strong understanding of;

- Commercial interior design / spatial design – retail, hospitality, leisure and workplace
- Space planning and layouts
- Customer / employee experience and journey flows
- Concept design
- 3D space and visualisation
- Freehand sketching – clearly and quickly communicate ideas through this medium
- Interpreting and turning briefs, insights into credible, fit-for-purpose design solutions
- Interpret CAD plans and production drawings
- Designing with the finer details of fabrication plus FF&E in mind
- Knowledge of manufacturing and production processes
- Creating clear production drawings for estimation and manufacture
- Supplier liaison to take a project from concept to completion
- Design trends and philosophies – being informed on current and upcoming sectoral trends
- Comfortable presenting and conveying design intent to all stakeholders
- Client facing and project management experience an advantage

Software skills

- Adobe suite – Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign a must – all others a benefit
- 3D software – SketchUp and Solidworks
- CAD – an advantage

TAP has collaborative way of working, with both brand and environment /spatial designers working together to co-create design solutions that are the best expression of a brand. You will be agile and able to work with a dynamic team on various projects at a time. We require you to be comfortable with a collaborative approach - being able to quickly explain your thinking and concepts, take direction and feedback, working as a team to refine them.

TAP Creations

Established in 2015, TAP Creations is a design agency that fuses insight, imagination, solutions and creativity to reinvigorate our client's brands and the spaces they operate in. Spaces where people eat, shop, work and play. We believe that beautiful, purpose-led design can affect positive and lasting change.

Our capabilities include concept design, identity, environments, communication and storytelling. Rooted in connecting people within the built environment, we recognise that people's lives, their needs and expectations are changing. That to create more purposeful brand experiences requires seamless collaboration across physical and digital spaces.

We see ourselves as bilingual: we speak the language of design and business. We listen, we observe, we research. We seek to understand and reframe challenges. We learn as much as we can about our client's worlds and what success means for them. We then apply expert thinking with insight and imagination to design solutions and craft experiences that realise ambition, transforming outcomes.

An energetic, close-knit bunch that value curiosity, being bold, enthusiasm, people, purpose and fun. Giving back means a lot to us too.

We know the fit of the person is as important as skills and experience. If you are someone that relates to the following behaviours, let's talk.

- Desire to inspire, learn and improve
- Focus and fire to accomplish goals and get things done
- Empathy beyond understanding – compassionate and respectful
- Embraces authenticity
- Uses good judgement
- Not afraid to challenge, take risks or learn from failure
- Reframes problems to find opportunities
- Looks to and embraces future thinking
- Harnesses creativity to make a difference, to impact, delight and excite
- Takes work seriously, but not oneself, has fun
