

Internship for Marketing Student at Trinity College Institute of Neuroscience

The Gillan lab is currently offering a voluntary internship to an undergraduate or postgraduate marketing student who is interested in gaining experience in a research environment. The internship will last for 1 month (starting as soon as possible), during which time the student will assist with the promotion and advertisement of a large scale international internet-based research study. The student will work alongside members of the lab to conceive of, and act on, novel ideas for recruiting our target sample of participants.

This internship is purely voluntary but the successful candidate will be required to make a minimum commitment of 8 hours during the first week, and 4-6 hours thereafter.

Essential requirements include:

At least a B2 in higher level English (or the equivalent)

Excellent written and verbal communication skills

Excellent attention to detail

Excellent initiative

Familiarity with Google Adwords and digital advertising would be very desirable but not essential.

Interested candidates should send their CV to Siobhan Harty (hartys1@tcd.ie)
