

Paul Pierse, H.Dip. Ed., B. Comm. Int., Mediator, Law Lecturer and Solicitor.

Paul is a practising mediator certified by the Mediators Institute of Ireland. Paul lectures on the LLB (Hons) in Irish Law in Griffith College Cork. From Listowel in County Kerry, Paul obtained an honours degree in Commerce and German from the National University of Ireland, Galway, before being admitted on the roll of solicitors by the law society of Ireland. As a law lecturer, Paul has delivered seminars to both lawyers and mediation students on legal aspects of mediation. Paul is a mediator with Succession Ireland (www.successionireland.ie) and brings with him to this role his experience as a solicitor and a lecturer in land and succession law. Paul has been published in the area of regulatory considerations surrounding mediating in Ireland.